Handelsblatt – Substance matters

Handelsblatt is the leading business and financial newspaper among Germany's top decision-makers. Handelsblatt is a byword for up-to-the-minute information, reliable research, serious journalism and objectivity. News is researched, analysed and placed in its often complex context. Particular importance is attached to background, commentary and analysis. With its well-researched reports on future trends and new technologies, Handelsblatt supplies decision-makers with the information they need to act successfully in constantly changing sectors and markets.

Be it global trends in the financial markets and national economies, international trade agreements or national tax legislation – decision-makers need to be aware of all the relevant factors to make their day-to-day decisions. Handelsblatt features the necessary wide-ranging back-ground information in its Politics, Companies, Finance and Investment section. A detailed commentary and analysis section, internationally renowned columnists and numerous forecasting tools underpin the Handelsblatt's unique position as Germany's leading Business and financial newspaper.

The Handelsblatt brand with its network of closely linked media channels for print, online, mobile and social media satisfies current-day requirements in terms of its readers' information and utilisation behavior. As a communication platform, the Handelsblatt Business Club offers a platform for meetings, the exchange of knowledge and inspiration.

The look and feel of the newspaper, the Handelsblatt Online website, the iPad and mobile apps, and the digital newsletters and podcasts like the "Morning Briefing" or Handelsblatt Disrupt are perfectly coordinated, ensuring clear recognisability across all media. The content of the different channels is also fully integrated, ensuring that decision-makers can obtain the full range of relevant information around the clock on all channels.
